Teachers Met Saturday in Bassano

The teachers of the Bassano School held a meeting on Saturday, Dec. 5, in the high school. The chief topic of discussion was the proposed music festival to be held in Bassano next spring. Three resolutions were proposed, these to be given on Saturday, Dec. 10 at the meeting Mr. Evans will hold in Bassano regarding the music festival.

Mrs. Margaret Deane then gave a very interesting and illuminating lecture on banding and first aid. A vote of thanks was given to her before the meeting adjourned.

Mr. J. O. Salmond was a Bassano caller Saturday.

At a meeting of the Bassano Local Sunshine Society held in the Town Hall Tuesday evening of this week, preliminary arrangements for the sponsoring of the Annual Sunshine Dance in Bassano were discussed and made.

The Sunshine Dance has always proved a gala event of the holiday season, and this year's dance will be no exception. The services of Eddie MacLean and his popular "Swingers" Orchestra have been secured for the evening. This orchestra has made several appearances in Bassano and on such have made a hit with all dance fans and lovers of dance music. The Swingers have from Calgary, and recently completed a summer engagement at a popular dance hall in Banff, Christmas and New Year's Eve, falling on Saturday's this year made it impossible to hold a dance on either of these dates after considerable discussion, it was decided that the date should be set for Wednesday, Dec. 28th. As usual, the local music hall will be the scene of activity.

Admission to the dance will be fifty cents per person, and tickets may be secured from any member of the Sunshine Society.

A valuable prize will be drawn for during the evening, each purchase of a ticket will entitle the purchaser to a chance in the draw. ## ORGANIZE JR. HOCKEY CLUB AT ROSEMARY

During the past two years the boys of Rosemary have worked to establish a local hockey team in the community. With this thirty well accomplished, they are now endeavoring to build up a school hockey team. It is hoped that they may be able to meet with teams in Bassano, Gens, and Patricia.

Those young fellows have little or no equipment and it has been decided to outfit a team with a school hockey team. A pair of $12.50 pinnies, C. C. M. skates. If the size of the skates on display are not the right size for the winner, they may be exchanged for a suitable pair. The ladies of Rosemary have kindly offered to add contributions to the outfit with the form of towels, underwear, gloves, etc. Tickets will sell for $10 each, and the holder to two chances in the raffle. This will take place on New Year's Eve at a school rink in Rosemary. The first draw is to be for the outfit and contribution, the second is to be for the money. The prizes are to be displayed in Joe Chabot's store.

Any help given by sportsmen, athletes, or anyone else will be very much appreciated.

Gem Bazaar Social Success

Gem (Special)—The Gem Ladies' Community Club bazaar held Friday, December 5, was an even greater success than last year. A capacity crowd filled the school house. There were a number of outside visitors present.

Mrs. Ryan, who was in charge of the fancy work, displayed a beautiful array of fancy work, and the results of the sales were most gratifying.

Mrs. Archibald had a very attractive display of used goods, and although she was not successful, she said they would keep it next year. Mrs. Gibb, who was in charge of the food booth, soon cleaned the pond of fish. The youngsters had a grand time.

The dance was of course enjoyed by young and old. The Melody Five supplied real poppy music.

A number of special prizes and dances were the big attraction of the evening. The Door Prize was won by Betty Spence. The Elimination Dance was won by Mrs. W. Williams and Jack Brown, the Prize Wives by Mrs. Hyatt and John Brown, and the Spot Dance by Babe George and H. Huff.

A raffle donated by Mrs. McKay was tickled off and was won by Bert Keating.

The dance lasted until the wee small hours of the morning; everyone and such a marvelous time they had that they were not going to stop.

The ladies wish to thank every one who so kindly assisted in making our bazaar such a success.

The Secretary, who acted as returning officer for the poll taken in the Duchess township, informed the Board that the vote in the Town Hall, it is probable that many families have overlooked these donations; no tar, but have used clothing they are willing to pass on.

As there is only a very short time left in which to prepare hampers the Society urges that clothing be contributed as early as possible. Mr. M. A. MacLean will call at your homes and deliver your parcel to the town hall free of charge, if you will just phone him now.

A general discussion of the Sunshine Dance was conducted, and a Committee appointed to take care of all arrangements. The lady members of the Society will assist the committee by preparing and serving lunch at the dance.

As there is the obstacle of repetition in the distribution of hampers to be overcome, the Secretary was requested to communicate with other side Sunshine organizations, asking for co-operation in seeing that donations.

Financial Statement Sunshine Society Indicates Funds Low

Meeting of the Bassano Local Sunshine Committee was held in the Town Hall on Tuesday night of this week, with representatives from the three local churches, local lodges, Town Council, Board of Trade and the Bridge attending.

Following reading of the minutes of the last meeting of the society, the financial statement was presented and was thoroughly discussed. This statement reported the activity of the society over the period of the last year, and is as follows:

RECEIPTS, NOV. 16th, 1934

Nov. 16, 1934 to Nov. 16, 1935

Board of Trade	$25.00
R. A. Travis	3.00
Fire Brigade	10.00
Lodge	20.00
Proceeds of Sunshine dance	$175.83
Sunshine box	$1.50
TOTAL	$254.74

For Shoes, Stockings, Overcoats and Rubbers	$42.30
Other Clothing	20.59
Food	2.87
Xmas Cheer	12.25
TOTAL	$87.01

Balance in Bank at Dec. 6, 1934, $7.13

$254.74

N.B. Purchases of goods were made from:

James Johnston	$41.15
Lois Coan	27.99
A. McKee	15.57
TOTAL	$84.71

It will be seen from the above that the Society is lacking in finances with the approach of the coming season. Up to the present time, no canvassing for donations has been conducted this year, and if possible, the Society will refrain from such. However, any cash donations that citizens of the town and district may care to contribute to the cause will be gratefully received by the Secretary.

A call for donations of old clothing, made some to or three weeks ago, has not been responded to by citizens of the town as effectively this year as it has in the past, although several bundles have been delivered at the Town Hall. It is probable that many families have overlooked these donations; no tar, but have used clothing they are willing to pass on.

As there is only a very short time left in which to prepare hampers the Society urges that clothing be contributed as early as possible. Mr. M. A. MacLean will call at your homes and deliver your parcel to the town hall free of charge, if you will just phone him now.

A general discussion of the Sunshine Dance was conducted, and a Committee appointed to take care of all arrangements. The lady members of the Society will assist the committee by preparing and serving lunch at the dance.

As there is the obstacle of repetition in the distribution of hampers to be overcome, the Secretary was requested to communicate with other side Sunshine organizations, asking for co-operation in seeing that donations.

Wendley Touthin win wheat and oats crown.

Chicago, Nov. 28.—Two young Canadian brothers qualified as champion grain growers Sunday when they won the "winning row" at the International Grain and Hay show.

Francis Lloyd Rigby, 25, of Wembley, Alberta, pushed all competition to win the coveted "wheat king" crown, and his younger brother, W. Justyn Rigby, 22, took a place alongside him as the "oats king."

The "wheat king" couple of grain of the Reward variety was outstanding. It weighed 67.5 pounds to the bushel and judges said the sample was one of the finest of red hard spring wheat they had ever seen.

Christmas Magic (By Edna Jacques)

For the magic Christmas brings, I've only gifts and things; I've cold sweat and frost and fire, Swell as bergamot and myrrh; It's bells above the shining night, The gold of frost and candlelight.

For the magic Christmas holds in low brown hills and quiet folds; In the hush of the lovely night, Stars gleam above the snow.

Holly wreaths and fragrant pine, This the glory that is mine, Christmas holds a lovely magic, That you cannot see or touch.

Love and faith, and hope and cheer, Jewels sent to crown the year— It's deep meaning, Mrs. H. Bacon, Vice-President, and Mr. Jas. R. Donaldson, Secretary.

SUNSHINE SOCIETY AN ASSET TO TOWN

CO-OPERATION ON THE PART of citizens in rural communities leads to the organization, and eventually success, of groups striving to accomplish aims and objects of benefit to their community.

For example, the Bassano Local Sunshine Society, now in its fourth or fifth year of service, could not have successfully conducted its charitable activities had it not been for the co-operation of individuals in the town, district, and even from outside points. These individuals, realizing the sorrowful plight of unfortunate, the shortage of food and clothing, and the hardships experienced by some in colder weather, have organized with the aim in view of distributing, as evenly as possible, provisions to lighten the burdens and hardships of those in need.

No one will deny the fact that this is a worthy accomplishment. There are larger centres than Bassano where activities along this line fall in the hands of two or three willing workers. In Bassano an organization, with a representation from practically every organization in town, handles the distribution of necessities at this season and in a well organized manner. And the Society has received every possible measure of co-operation from citizens and merchants in the town. This, combined with efforts of members of the Society in passing banners for Christmas, and bundles of clothing, has made it possible for the Society to carry out each year its splendid work. May such co-operation continue.

GOSSIP

THERE ARE TWO GOOD RULES which ought to be written on every heart. Never believe anything bad about anybody unless you positively know it is true; never tell about it unless you feel that it is absolutely necessary and that God is listening while you tell it.—Van Dyke

HOSPITAL INQUIRES ABOUT "IRON LUNG"

THE BASSANO HOSPITAL may, if enquiries now being conducted prove satisfactory, in the near future be equipped with one of the most modern respirators, or "iron lung" as they are commonly known. The information will be received by local and district medical authorities, and by citizens of the district as a whole.

According to recent dispatches, Lord Neufeld, motor and airplane manufacturer, and one of Britain's outstanding philanthropists, plans to give every hospital in the British Empire, which might reasonably be expected to use a respirator with advantage, one of the new machines manufactured in his own plant in England. Lord Neufeld contemplates investing some $2,500,000 in the production of his machines. In the past, he has donated thirteen million pounds to educational and other institutions, and it is believed he was inspired to make his present offer when an outbreak of infantile paralysis took away many lives because "iron lungs" were not available to assist in recovery from the disease.

Until the present time, there has been no urgent demand for a respirator in the local hospital. However, this is no guarantee that a case, or cases, when one of the machines could be placed in effective service will arise. It is far better to be prepared for an emergency, than to have to transport the patient to a larger centre where the facilities are available, with a possible loss of life due to the extra time required before a respirator could be placed in service.

The local Hospital, the only institution of its kind between the cities of Calgary and Medicine Hat, is one of the most modernly equipped hospitals in the Province located in a rural town. It is equipped to care for isolation cases, should the occasion arise when communicable diseases infest the community. This alone is not provided for in many Alberta hospitals. The addition of a respirator, through the co-operation of Lord Neufeld, would bring the standard of our local institution to a point superior to others in the Province, and would also be an asset to the district at a time when stricken persons were dependent upon it for assistance in recovery.

● THOUGHT PROVOKING ITEM

THE FOLLOWING thought provoking statement was heard over the radio last Thursday afternoon on the occasion of a special broadcast from Warm Springs, Georgia, and spoken by President Roosevelt at the annual Thanksgiving dinner given to infantile patients of the institution. It was a telegram from that famous actor, comedian and radio star, Eddie Cantor, and read: "I am glad I live in a country where the leaders of that country sit down with their people to carve up a turkey instead of a nation." ### ● JOHN D. ROCKEFELLER'S ESTATE

WE WONDER what the reaction of those who advocate the sharing of wealth is to the disclosure of John D. Rockefeller's estate. The aged industrialist left an estate of $24 millions to his heirs. What a fine time the believers in the share the wealth platform would have with this money. But they lose ground when it is disclosed that the same Rockefeller gave away over $500 millions during his lifetime. The question is could he manage the distribution of this huge sum more advantageously than if he had been forced to turn it over to the government or other agencies. The answer is a blessing when properly managed, and the individual has as good a chance for proper management as theorists.—Peace River Recorder.

News from Edmonton

Two of the best reasons for the sudden and discreet death of various insurgent movements in the Alberta legislature and in the cabinet during the past three years, and particularly in the past year, were presented at the inquiry to those who were able to dig them out of a mass of figures last week.

They were in the public accounts of the province for the year ending last March 31. And among other things—among a welter of evidence of other extravaganzas—appeared comparisons to show these things.

1. Expenditure on the regular indemnities of $2,000 each and special indemnities last year, private members of the legislature drew a total of $2,146 for themselves in "substantial allowances," which were special cash grants made to them for sitting on committees and boards created by the members themselves.

2. Cabinet ministers paid themselves in addition to their salaries of $3,500 in the case of the premier and $6,000 each in the case of other ministers, and in addition to their personal indemnities, an total of $1,165 in travelling expenses.

Never before in Alberta's history have private members of the legislature been so generous to themselves at the public trough; never before has a government in power been so generous in appointing so many backbenchers to so many "special committees" or "boards," at rates ranging between $1 and $12 per day for each man or woman in addition to the regular allowances given to legislators.

The total paid to the backbenchers on various committees during the fiscal year 1958-59, which was the first full year of the Aberhart government, totalled just $1,165. The year before, 1957-58, part of which was under the administration of the U. P. A. government and the rest under the Aberhart government in those happy days before any Social Credit members began to rebel so seriously that conclusions had to be sought for them, was just $15.

The cabinet ministers' total of travelling expenses created no new record; the yearly total reached its high mark under the present administration in the previous fiscal year with its total then of $9,315. The chief significance in those high totals lies in the lack of accomplishments to show for them except in the strictly political and party field, and the reports usually made by ministers that they have returned to the capital: "Nothing to say; the trip was an government business."

Premier Aberhart and Provincial Treasurer Low are due back in Edmonton this week after another joyous trip east; the premier visited his family in St. John's, Ontario, over the weekend in the Christmas spirit after having spent a couple of days in Ottawa and according to unconfirmed rumors in New York.

At one time, according to those interviews, he said that he was hoping for dominion guarantees or loans to cover Alberta's debt. At another (how he said he asked for no financial help from the federal government when he talked with Prime Minister Macdonald King and with Finance Minister Charles A. Dunning. He also stated he was only seeking the dominion's blessing on his plans. Out of it all did come one definite statement: that the Alberta government is not going to be able to pay $2,500,000 which is falling due next month in maturities. It means default again unless the dominion comes to the rescue of the province once more in spite of the claimed surplus of close to $2,000,000 on the province's book for the past fiscal year on income account; in spite of the annual saving of $2,500,000 through payment of only half interest; in spite of greatly increased taxation during the past two years; in spite of a record profit of over $2,500,000 last year from the province's liquor monopoly.

A monopoly in oil, with the provincial government controlling all oil put and keeping the price at a level desired, was hinted by a new order-in-council asking a royal commission to study the possibility of the government taking over control of Turner Valley.

At the same time, the government undertook to prosecute 24 companies and size individuals in what it alleged to be another monopoly — a tobacco-distributing company, or tobacco. That prosecution came only after the federal government had established a royal commissioner, F. A. McGregor, who investigated the subject last September, and after his report had been followed by formal complaints registered with the Alberta attorney-general's department, forcing prosecution.

CHRISTMAS SCENES

A picture like this will become a most cherished possession a few years hence. Begin your picture record now.

CHRISTMAS comes and Christmas goes, year after year, each so much like the other, as we look back on them, that, unless we are children, none seems to stand out in our memory.

We know that there was a Christmas, tree and that, under death and around it, were piled a miscellaneous lot of packages and the children had a joyful time opening them. But any details of the scene are usually too elusive to give unless we are among those who do not let Christmas go by without taking pictures of the celebration.

Those who customarily do this possess precious reminders of scenes that are entirely different each year, chiefly because the principal actors in them, the children, grow and change. Two years ago Jack-Willie was delighted with a Jack-Willie box but now it is young Master Willie enthralled by his first electric train. The picture comparison of Willie on these two Christmas mornings is a joy to behold and, as the years go by, three pictures become more precious and more precious.

Now that indoor picture-taking has been so greatly simplified by the invention of photographic flash bulbs and flood light bulbs for use in the home at small cost, there seems to be no longer any excuse for camera owning families failing to take pictures of their "very Christmas holiday's good times." The tree alone can be taken with a flash exposure by ordinary electric light illumination, plus the lights of the tree, but, of course, for real story-telling pictures of Christmas, you want members of the family in them; pictures that call for split second exposures. For these the flash bulb does away with any question of exposure time because the flash is always about 1/25 second of intensely brilliant light, the picture being taken with the lens open. Almost any kind of camera that can be set for "time" or "bulb" action can be used.

For taking a considerable number of pictures, however, the longer burning flood light bulbs are less expensive per picture. With a 1.5 amp or faster and with two or three of these little burning "wall sockets or floor lamps, snapshots may be taken at 1/25 second. If your camera is of the slow-shutter type or a box camera, the illumination must be somewhat longer and flood lights for such cameras are also available. Another Christmas will soon be here. Why not take a few pictures? The possibilities are endless. 116 JOHN VAN GUILDER.

But chubby legs will lengthen, and a small boy strides into manhood. Soon he'll be buying a ring and they'll come out of a church with shy faces and shining eyes. As you did—how many years ago?

Their path will be a little easier than yours . . . how you've toiled to make that possible! And they'll have more outside help too. Advertising has come forward in the last few years, and brought a hundred servants to the modern home.

Their road will be marked with familiar names. They'll choose the reliable, advertised trade-marks . . . whether in breakfast foods, a radio, or a new car. They'll know that an advertised product has to be an honest product—its honesty proved by thousands of buyers before them.

They'll take on new responsibilities—just as you two did! Advertising will help them meet these new problems a little easier, a bit better. And they'll come out all right . . . you needn't worry about them!

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor—

In my father's home we were brought up to be readers of the weekly press. We had in our home in Oxford County, the Amherst Courier, the Woodstock Sentinel Review, the Stratford Beacon, all well conducted and influential newspapers. All my life I have been a reader of weekly papers published in the smaller cities and towns and I know how great is their influence in the lives of the people. Their special sphere of information constantly includes the home, the school, the church and municipal government. A large and most important fact of life. It is important for the welfare of the people that the weekly press should continue prosperous and influential.

There is one other matter I suppose one should mention—that is the question of politics. The old idea of a purely party organ is passing—yet every editor with a living soul is bound to be an influence on public questions. He cannot even give correct information without creating opinion. I sincerely believe the few well-known papers with local circulation are still largely the power behind the throne—which the city paper and public men generally seek to reflect and follow. It is therefore most important that the editors of these influential weekly journals should have freedom and courage. There need be nothing partisan in them. I am not an admirer of neutrality.

Sincerely yours,
HUGH MUNROB
Moderator of General Assembly
—the Presbyterian Church in Canada,
New Glasgow, N.S.

Prof: "Miss Gay can you give me the three classifications into which men are divided?"
Miss Gay: "Yes, sir; rich, poor and good looking."

Joyce: "My but your daughter is growing fast!"
Nurse: "Oh, I don't believe she's any worse than the other young folks in town."

THE GREATEST THING

By Edward Ormerod

There lies on my desk today a well-thumbed copy of Professor Henry Drummond's little book: The Greatest Thing in the World. I have just concluded a many-times-repeated reading of it, and who loves the beautiful things of life, who cherishes the noble and lovely things wherever they are, I earnestly commend it.

Who shall estimate, for us the result of putting away out of our lives everything of hate, ill-temper, envy, malice, criticism, greed, intolerance? How frequently do we come upon the disastrous result of these things in the working out of our own or the lives of those about us. The gentleness, the kindness turned to indifference, the friendships estranged, the tender feelings trodden upon—through lack of The Greatest Thing.

Men are learning slowly to prepare themselves not for death, as we used to do, but for life. After all these years we are just beginning to appreciate the idea that the Kingdom of Heaven is within us—not a far-off place to go to some day, as we had come to think of it, but a something to be realized here and now—within us. Only through long ages of time and tapers of experience are we learning the true nature of the interdependence of men, that truly no one of us lives unto himself alone.

No man today, aiming at achievement in any legitimate sphere of human endeavor, can afford to permit within the compass of his personality hate, antagonism or enmity toward others. Such sentiments are of the nature of destructiveness, and must be guarded against with the same care we use against fire, burglary or other destructive agencies. The practice of indulging in spells or outbursts of hatred or enmity; the material configurations, jealous always behind it, ashes and loss. The dignity of sane living, the culture of worthwhile personality, large attainment, achievement all are rendered difficult or impossible where such emotions are given place, where their anti-social influences are permitted to set up and function. Many of us there be who spend year after year a large measure of effort in indulgence in these destructive emotions, or in weak and inefficient attempts at the control or abatement of them, wasting so nervous energy and setting into operation forces which must inevitably result to our own disadvantage as well as to the hurt of those against whom they are aimed.

On the other hand, the culture and development in one's life of The Greatest Thing, is truly constructive and as it grows becomes a means to further progress along the chosen path, to attainment of an increasing measure of successful living, material, cultural, mental, spiritual. It is a putting into operation in a favorable direction of the great law of attraction—those functioning or expression is like attracting like.

Analyzing The Greatest Thing, Professor Drummond says this:

"Faith, in three senses, very short, gives an amazing analysis of what this supreme thing is. I ask you to look at it. It is a compound thing, he tells us. It is like a light. As you have seen a man of science take a light and pass it through a crystal prism, you have seen it come out on the other side of the prism broken up into its component colors—red, and blue, and yellow, and orange, and violet, and all the colors of the rainbow—so Paul passes this thing, Love, through the magnificent prism of his inspired intellect, and it comes out on the other side broken up into elements. And in these few words we have what one might call the Spectrum of Love, the analysis of Love. Will you observe what its elements are? Will you notice that they have common names: that they are virtues that we hear about every day; that they are things that can be practiced by every man in every place in life; and how, by a multitude of small things and ordinary virtues, the supreme thing, the summum bonum is made up."

"The Spectrum of Love has nine ingredients:

Patience—Love suffereth long;
Kindness—And is kind;
Generosity—Love envieth not;
Humility—Love vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up;
Courtesy—Both not behave itself unseemly;
Unselfishness—Seeketh not her own;
Good Temper—Is not easily provoked;
Gentleness—Thinketh not evil;
Sincerity—Rejecteth not in iniquity but rejoiceth in the truth;
Patience; kindness; generosity; humility; courtesy; unselfishness; good temper; sincerity; gentleness; these make up the supreme gift, the stature of the perfect man.

CANCER CRUSADE GIVEN IMPETUS BY GOV-GENERAL

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.—The Canadian Crusade against Cancer has been given a new impetus through the interest shown by the Governor-General and the Lady Tweeddale, who, with other distinguished citizens attended the lecture given here on November 1st by Dr. C. C. Little, General Director of the American Association for the Control of Cancer. Speaking under the auspices of the Ottawa Branch of the Health League of Canada, Dr. Little said he was greatly encouraged by what he had seen in Toronto and Ottawa, referring especially to the facilities at the Ottawa Civic Hospital for combating Cancer.

Dr. Little declared that Canada was in a better position to fight cancer than the United States owing to there being fewer races and creeds in this country. Cancer was a common threat that should make us all brothers and sisters and the problem was one in which were all the elements of practical Christianity.

After explaining the nature of cancer, the speaker reviewed the research work that had been accomplished and was being continued by the scientists, described the treatment being given and outlined the needs of education.

In research the help of very intelligent man and woman was needed and the over-emotionalism of some people regarding the use of animals for experiment should not be allowed to retard progress. As to treatment encouraging results were being obtained but he uttered a strong warning against quack "cures."

The necessity of early diagnosis emphasized the importance of continuation educational efforts. He pleaded for personal effort and co-operation to promote the crusade against cancer.

Dr. Hon. Sir Lyman P. Duff, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court who is Chairman of the King George V Cancer Fund, which is devoted to Cancer research, expressed the thanks of the gathering to Dr. Little and to the Health League. He expressed the appreciation of those present of the unremitting sympathy in all worthy causes, "which was recognized throughout the length and breadth of Canada and which evoked a grateful response in the hearts of every one."

UNITY COUNCIL UNIT FORMED AT CAMROSE

Newest unit in the rapidly developing provincial movement for united political action at the next general election was organized at Camrose recently when over 200 citizens met in the Bailey theatre for a discussion of the economic and political situation. Those attending came from many parts of this provincial riding and were representative of both the farming and business life of the district, as well as the various schools of political thought in it.

Camrose Constituency Unity Association turned over to the executive elected the responsibility of selecting a member to represent the association in the Unity Council of Alberta. It was decided to establish a preliminary organization in every polling subdivision of the riding by the election of an association committee, consisting of one woman, one man, and one direct representative of the youth in each point. Eight directors, a president, vice-president, and secretary treasurer were elected to carry forward the work of organization.

THE MAN YOU CAN TRUST

The man you can trust is the man who is simple, direct, sincere. When he undertakes a responsible task, he is fully and deeply conscious of his responsibility. He is intent upon fairness and justice to all, even to those who oppose him.

To him, the sincerity of the demagogue is as dishonest as the trickery of the con man or embezzler. To him, honor is dearer than power, and a clear conscience more precious than wealth or fame. He is suspicious of more brilliance and he is not easily fascinated by the plausibility of quacks or misled by the enthusiasm of cranks for good judgement, good character, and ripe experience are what he most respects. He does not waver like a leaf in the wind of popular approval or disapproval.

When he makes a pledge he can be relied upon to keep it at whatever cost to himself, for he acts on principles of right and wrong, not on the convenience and expediency of the moment. He is not all things to all men. When he says, "No," he means yes, and when he says "Yes," he means no.

In short, the man you can trust, in the long run, is the man who is the clever man or the charming man, but the man keeps his word—E.E.

The Poet's CORNER

A FRIEND'S GREETING

(At Christmas time) Y. L. G.
I'd like to be the sort of friend that
you have been to me;
I'd like to be the help that you've been always glad to be;
I'd like to mean as much to you as each minute of the day
As you have meant, old friend of mine,
to me along the way.

I'd like to do the big things and the splendid things for you—To break the gray from out your skies
and leave them only blue;
I'd like to say the kindly things that I so often heard,
And feel that I could rouse your soul
the way that mine you've stirred.

I'd like to give you back the joy that you have given me.
Yet that's what wishing you a need I hope will never be;

I'd like to make you feel as rich as I, who travel on Undaunted in the darkest hours, with you to lead upon.

I'm wishing at this CHRISTMAS
TIME that I could but repay
A portion of the gladness that you've strewn along my way.

And could I have one wish this year,
this only wish it be;
I'd like to be the sort of friend that
you have been to me.

CORRECTION:

The Poem published in last week's Recorder, entitled "My Neighbor" was not printed correctly as written on the original copy. The lines "So many were brought to me" she smilingly said, should read:

"So many were brought to me, she smilingly said,
The line "And you not too well, or able to stand" should read:

"And not well, or able to stand,"
and the line "She opened the door so softly and peeped inside" should read
"She opened the door softly and peeped inside."

These few small words, added in error, change and make a great difference in the rhythmical and the sense of the poem.

ANSWERED PRAYERS

I prayed for riches, and achieved success;
All that I touched turned into gold.

Alas!
My cares were greater and my peace
was less,
When that wish came to pass.

I prayed for glory, and I heard my name Sung by sweet children and by hoary men.

But ah! the curse—the curse that came with fame
I was not happy then.

I prayed for Love, and had my heart's desire,
Through quivering heart and body,
and through brain.

There swept the flame of its devouring fire,
And but the scars remain.

I prayed for a contented mind. At length
Great light upon my darkened spirit broke.

Great peace fell on me also, and great strength.

Oh! had that prayer been first!

CANADIAN MOSAIC

Definitely ranking in its own field with its recent book, "Steel of Empire," "Canadian Mosaic," by John Murray Gibson, General Agent, Canadian Pacific Railway, is a notable contribution to Canadian literature and to Canadian folk lore.

The book, which contains 24 pages with 24 magnificent colored illustrations from panels of Canadian types and landscapes, by such artists as James Cockran, V. J. Phillips, H.C.A., Kathleen Shackleton, N. de Grand-maison, Ernst Neuman, and R. H. Palmer; and 49 pieces of photographs and paintings reproduced in half tone, also contains a number of maps which show the origin of Canada's various racial groups and their settlements in the Dominion.

The Canadian people will remember the broadcast series heard over the C. P. C. national network last winter, entitled "Canadian Mosaic," in which Mr. Gibson traced the adaptation of old World music to the growing traditions of Canada's various races in the new land. His "Canadian Mosaic" which appeared at the end of last month, is the result of the exhaustive studies made by Mr. Gibson in the preparation of the broadcast series.
and by his amplification of the information then gained by his living and vivid picture of the contribution made to Canadian history and culture by the 24 European races from which the Dominion has drawn much of its blood.

The scope and purpose of the book is explained in the preface: "The Canadian race of the future is being superimposed on the original native

FAILURE

'Tis better to have tried in vain
Sincerely striving for a goal,
Than to have lived upon the plain
An idle and a timid soul.
'Tis better to have fought and spent
Your courage, missing all applause
Than to have lived in snug content
And never ventured for a cause.
For he who tries and fails may be
The founder of a better day;
Though never won the victory,
From him shall others learn the way.

To have known an ideal friendship and had it fade from your grasp and fire as a shadow before it is touched with the sorid breath of selfishness or culled by misunderstanding, is to lose the highest good; and the constant dwelling in sweet, and recollection on the crushed virtue of the one that has gone, tends to crystallize these very virtues in the heart of him who med-itates them.

The SNAPSHOT GUILD

SCHOOL-TIME PICTURES

An easy, humorous school-time "story" snapshot, that could be made with any camera.

VACATION is over, and a new school year has begun. The hustle rush and bustle at breakfast, the patter of small feet down long school halls as class bells ring, and much, peering over taxis and notebooks under the living-room lamp at night. A new season—and a new field for the camera.

How many of us have good collections of school-day snapshots—pictures of our own school days, or of children's? Most albums reveal too few, and the chance to make others will not return. Look at Johnny as he tightens the strap about his books, and goes whistling down the walk to another day of classes. If he's in the fourth grade now, you'll never be able to take another picture of him at the third grade stage.
Time hurries on, and the pictures we lose today are lost forever.

Do you have a good "off to school" snap of the children, showing them as they turn at the gate to wave good-by to pictures? Probably not—yet it would be so easy to bring out the camera any sunny morning and catch a quick snapshot you would never

Indian race and is being made up of over thirty European racial groups,
each of which has its own history, customs, and traditions. While there is still time, let us make a survey of these racial groups—see where they came from, what relationship, if any,
they had with each other in Europe, what culture they enjoyed and how much of that culture they have been able to bring with them.

This Mr. Gibson seems to have done very successfully with his usual facility of presenting worthwhile and interesting facts in a manner which is not only enlightening but very entertaining.

ORE TESTING

has excellent facilities for test work on ores.

One quarter of the new space is allocated to a crushing and "sampling plant" with a capacity of four tons per hour to provide a long-ferred service to mine operators who require an accurate appraisal of the value of representative shipments from their ore-bodies. In the remaining space are apparatus for grinding, classification, gravity and flotation concentration, and magnetic concentration along with the machinery necessary for the classification of ore, the equipment being so placed that combination and break-ups are readily adaptable with a minimum expenditure of time and effort.

Most of the research and investigative work is on gold ores, and owing to the steady increase in this work unavoidable delays have occurred, more especially on occasions when a number of complex ores were being studied.

The new building and equipment are designed to remedy this.
A complete cyanidation unit is provided for the test work on the extraction of gold from its ores. This "pilot plant" consisting of a ball mill, classifier, thickeners, agitator tanks filters, and a precipitation unit, is capable of milling up to two tons in twenty-four hours. It will thus be possible to gain data which will correspond very closely with the results that would be obtained from milling practice on a much larger scale.

Should amalgamation appear to be the proper method for extracting the gold, an amalgamation unit consisting of ball mill, gold jig or trap, cordury blankets, and clean-up barrel can be readily assembled. For work on the treatment of flotation ores, a large continuous flotation unit with thirty cells to handle ten tons of feed per 24 hours is provided, along with the necessary accessory equipment.

Gem Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson and daughter, of Calgary; the first of settlers to come to Gem, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Royer for a few days. They spent a day visiting at the Robson home and left on Tuesday.

Mrs. Callison motored to Calgary and returned Wednesday of last week with Tom who has been a patient in St. Mary's Hospital, where he underwent an operation. We are all pleased to see him looking his former self.

Mr. Roy Edwards has been kept busy since this organization of the New Feeders Association, and has been absent from home almost continually since. It is fortunate for the farmers of Gem that we have someone to take such an active part in St. Mary's Hospital, where he underwent an operation. We are all pleased to see him looking his former self.

Ted Wade, who has been on the sick list for the past month, is feeling much better.

Phyllis Wright of Hinton, is visiting with her cousin, "Babe" George. Lois Edwards, who is staying with her sister, Mrs. A. Cadar, in Bassano, attending school there, visited at her home in Gem over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Risto, of Idlesleigh, spent a few days in Gem last week.

Mrs. Sandahl, Ann Powell, and Beverly returned last week after spending six weeks visiting with relatives and friends in North Dakota. They had a wonderful trip. In Mrs. Sandahl's words, "the six weeks seemed like six days."

A number of Gemites attended the Catholic Ladies' Altar Society Tea, Saturday.

We are very pleased to forward this very encouraging news of the Edward baby: Mrs. Edwards has now taken the baby out of the hospital and is nursing him privately. The baby is progressing favorably, and making rapid recovery.

Mrs. Bill Robson of Gem gave a tea and shower in honor of Mrs. Iris Robson on Nov. 26th. A number of the ladies of the Colony were present. The bride-elect was presented with a number of beautiful gifts. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, and a very enjoyable time was had by all.

Following their marriage in Calgary on Nov. 26th, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hiley left for Spokane, Washington, where they will spend a short honeymoon. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Robson and Mr. and Mrs. W. George attended the wedding. The newly-weds expect to visit Seattle and Vancouver before returning to their future home in Gem.

The G. L. C. C. met today at the home of Mrs. C. Villet. Full report of the meeting next week.

Additional Gem notes held over till next week.

R. C. ALTAR SOCIETY

TEA AND SALE A SUCCESS

The R. C. Altar Society of Bassano and district are being congratulated on the successful results of their 1936 Christmas Tea and Sale etc.

They tender their grateful thanks to each and every person who helped them to make this effort so very satisfactory, both socially and financially.

Special thanks are due to the Bassano Recorder and Ontario Laundry for their voluntary subscription. ($1 year) and $2.00 worth of Dry Cleaning. May we also say, "Thank You" to the many ladies of the district who helped us so generously with needlework and donations, and also to the ladies who through unforeseen circumstances, were unable to attend the tea, sent in their contribution to the Secretary later. This is true co-operation and we appreciate it very much indeed. Our Gem friends, too, we thank so much for their help and donations of everything, also the Rosemary Ladies. We couldn't accomplish these results without our neighbors and friends who all helped us to clear $100.00 profit on the tea. Sherry Hinton was the lucky winner of the Hamper, goose and all.

Next year we hope to have a bigger and better hamper.

—THANK YOU!—
